

AUGRABIES AGRIMARK AIDS LOCAL SCHOOL

Renier Hanekom, Augrabies Agrimark Manager, reported that they donated netballs and water bottles to Assumpta Primary, a local school which is totally reliant on support from the community.

On the photograph Derick Mouton hands over the goods to the first netball team.

DURBANVILLE SCHOOL BENEFITS FROM COMPETITION

The Blue Mountains Primary School in Durbanville was the beneficiary of the proceeds of a drawing competition which was held by the Durbanville Agrimark in conjunction with Pentique Stationers.

The school's name was drawn from a list of less privileged schools in the Durbanville area. Apart from stationery to the value of R6,000, the school also received a woodwork bench, paint and warm clothes.

According to Daan van der Merwe, Senior Trading Clerk at the Durbanville Agrimark at the time, the competition was held to introduce and promote the Agrimark's stationery range.

Klara Brand (10) whose picture of a dog, was adjudged the winning entrant out of more than 300 entries, won prizes to the value of R1,300 which included a selfie stick, a memory stick, and a scarf.

Gerhard Jacobs, Manager of Durbanville Agrimark, Trudi Miller, owner of Pentique, and Anel Louw, a representative of Jonssons Workwear were the judges for the competition.

In the front from left to right is Amylee Claassen, Mondré Uithaler, Klara Brand (winner), Salomine Uithaler, Simonay-Lee Neels, and Charnay Hector. At the back is Albert Baadjies (principal), Niel Grobbelaar (Durbanville Agrimark), Trudi Miller (Pentique), Vaughn Cerff (Permoesal) and Gerhard Jacobs (Durbanville Agrimark)

GRASS FOR FRANSCHHOEK SCHOOL

The Franschhoek Agrimark donated artificial grass to the local Country Kids children's school. After the grass was laid in the classroom, it was decided that it needed a tree against the wall to fit in with the kindergarden scene.

According to the manager, Steven Cronje, it was wonderful to see what difference this small contribution made to the classroom and to the children.

Photo
The children on the grass with the tree in the background.

THE ELGIN GIRLS FLYING HIGH

Hannes van de Walt, Manager, reported that the Grabouw Agrimark once again made a contribution towards The Girls, a local drum majorette group who participated in the national SAMCA competition which was held in Gauteng.

The Girls reached the finals in all but one of the categories, and out of 23 schools they came fifth overall, which was a performance to be really proud of.

The leader, Jamie-Lee Amsterdam won a silver medal for the overall second place. The group's motto is: "One Team – One Dream...One Soul – One Goal.." And with these excellent results it is clear that they are living this motto.

FRANSCHHOEK AGRIMARK SUPPORTS FUND-RAISING EVENT

On the photograph Jacq Louis Manuel hands water sachets to the participants

Franschhoek Agrimark was involved with the annual French Corner Run/Walk by manning one of the water points. The greater part of the proceeds were donated to the local Fleur de Lis old age home 