CODE OF CONDUCT

POTATOES SOUTH AFRICA, PROKON, PAPER IMPORTERS, POTATO BAG MANUFACTURES AND POTATO BAG IMPORTERS

- The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to establish an agreement of co-operation between Potatoes South Africa, Prokon, paper importers, potato bag manufacturers and potato bag importers for upholding and/or assisting in implementing a guideline paper and packaging specification for the potato industry.
- The Code of Conduct shall not be aimed at the obstruction of the free operation of market mechanisms nor shall it have an adverse effect on business practices.
- The Code of Conduct shall give paper importers, potato bag manufacturers and potato bag importers to register with Potatoes South Africa and in so doing obtain the right to print a designated compliance logo of Potatoes South Africa on the national and tags produced or manufactured.
- By accepting this Code of Conduct, the paper importers, potato bag manufacturers and potato bag importers, undertake:
- To ensure that all potato bags are produced and printed in compliance with the guideline specification and potato regulations in respect of the printing and packaging of potatoes destined for sale in the Republic of South Africa. The guideline paper and packaging specification and potato regulations are administered by Prokon on behalf of Potatoes South Africa.

This bag complies with the prescribed minimum paper specifications:

- A minimum grammage of 70 gsm for 150 micrometre paper and 75 gsm for standard (white) paper.
- TEA minimum calculated value of the bag combined paper of 250 J/m<sup>2</sup> for CD and 250 J/m<sup>2</sup> for MD.
- A minimum TEA per ply of 130 J/m<sup>2</sup> for both CD and MD.
- A minimum MD Wet tensile strength of 1 kNm per ply and
- All paper must be FDA approved and certified recycled.

South Africa and its assignee of the Department of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries and Potatoes South Africa.

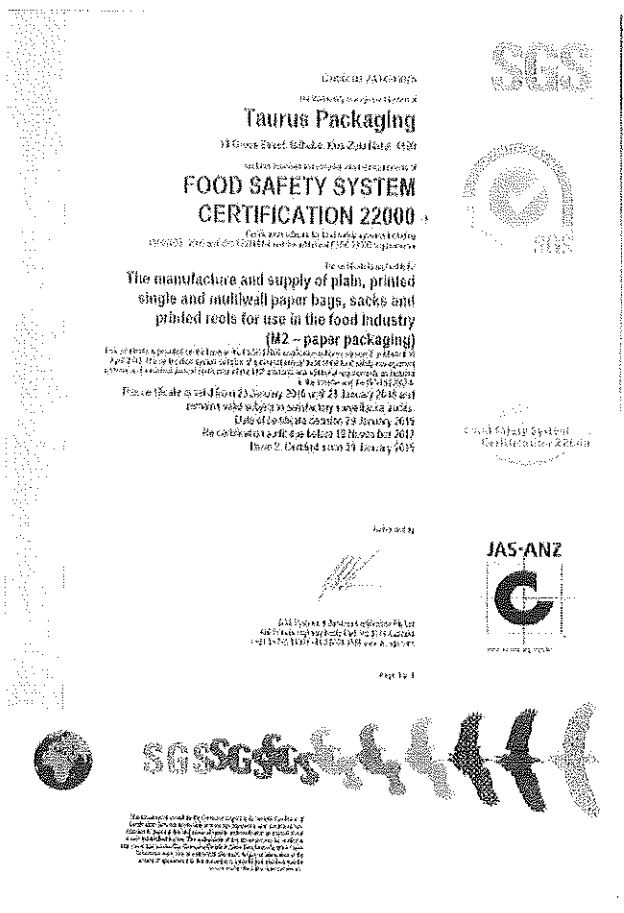

- To notify and take any deviation from the specification prior to the manufacturing of any bags with Potatoes South Africa and/or Prokon.

- To inform its clients of all the conditions set out in the paper and packaging guidelines specification should any client decide to continue ordering the bags which do not comply with the prescribed specification, the manufacturer undertakes to inform Potatoes South Africa and/or Prokon before the manufacturing or sale of such bags of their intention to do so.
- Permission to use the specific paper and packaging logo of the potato industry shall be given by Potatoes South Africa upon the signing of this Code of Conduct by the paper importers, potato bag manufacturers and potato bag importers.
- Potatoes South Africa reserves the right to withdraw the use of the logo should any of the paper importers, potato bag manufacturers and potato bag importers fail to adhere to the prescribed specifications.
- Potatoes South Africa undertakes to inform its members on a regular basis of the paper importers, potato bag manufacturers and potato bag importers have signed this Code of Conduct as well as which of them no longer meets the guideline requirement set and have consequently forfeited the right to use the logo.
- Potatoes South Africa will sign a Service Level Agreement (SLA) pertaining to the regular testing of bags and how these testing will be funded.
